

2019 Kakenhi Seminar

~ Introduction of the Kakenhi Funding System and how to write a Kakenhi Proposal ~

The Grants-in-Aid (Kakenhi) System is one of the largest funding mechanism by the Japanese government. This seminar will give an explanation on the Kakenhi system as well as guidance on how to write a Kakenhi proposal, including examples of accepted proposals. The URA Support Program, which provides advice and proposal review support will also be explained.

2019 August 27 Tue 13:30-16:00

Venue: Ito Guest House, multipurpose Hall 1st floor.
Ito Campus, Kyushu University (no. 74 on campus map)

http://www.kyushu-u.ac.jp/f/35762/2019ito_2.pdf

Pre-registration:

<https://forms.gle/LjgAdqVkssFr91DGA>

PROGRAM

- 13:00 On-Site Registration
- 13:30~13:40 Introduction
- 13:40~14:40 "On the Kakenhi System and how to write a Kakenhi proposal"
Dr. Harold Kusters, AiRIMaQ, Grant Support Group
- 14:40~15:00 "This is how I wrote my accepted proposal"
Dr. George Harrington, Center of Coevolutionary Research for Sustainable Communities (Wakate awardee).
- 15:00~15:20 "it is not only about the proposal..."
Dr. Kaveh Edalati, I2CNER (Kiban B awardee)
- 15:20~15:30 Support Program for Applying to Kakenhi
- 15:30~16:00 Q&A

Contact Information

Academic Research and Industrial Collaboration Management Office
Grant Support Group

E-mail: grant@airimaq.kyushu-u.ac.jp TEL: 092-802-2116

Scientific Research Promotion Division, Research Funding Section

E-mail: sykkaken@jimu.kyushu-u.ac.jp

九州大学 学術研究・産学官連携本部
Academic Research and Industrial Collaboration
Management Office of Kyushu University